

Adrien LaBombarde for President

Adrien LaBombarde has served CountryPlace as Treasurer of Players and Coordinator of the Special Projects Group. He leads two of the community's hurricane preparedness teams, manages exterior holiday decorating and is actively involved in many volunteer projects. He and his wife Susan have been involved in the Singers, the Ragtimers, the Adopt-a-Hole program and many other community activities since moving to CountryPlace in 2012.

Adrien retires this year from a pension actuary position with the National Office of the IRS after over 40 years of leadership experience including assistant vice president positions at Mutual Benefit Life and at Johnson & Higgins, followed by 20 years as manager of the pension research group and partner at Milliman. A nationally recognized authority in retirement planning, Adrien has managed and completed numerous major projects, conducted or audited various reserve studies including an actuarial audit of the U.S. social security system, served as arbitrator and expert witness, and provided creative solutions to clients worldwide. He is the author of the landmark book, A Guide to Nondiscrimination Requirement for Qualified Pension and Profit-Sharing Plans.

Adrien graduated magna cum laude from Drexel University with a Bachelor of Science degree, double majoring in mathematics and English. He was a member of Pi Mu Epsilon, honoring excellence in mathematics.

He enjoys math, reading, writing, singing, even line dancing and acting . . . and volunteering at CountryPlace!
